AMONG The FRATERNITIES.

Feb. 10.—Barmony, No. 29, F. C. and School of Instruction.
Feb. 11.—New Jerusalem, No. 9; George C. Whiting, No. 22.
Feb. 12.—St. John's, No. 11; Hope, No. 29, M. M.

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS. No. 8. Feb. 10 Grand Chapter. Feb. 11 Washington, No. 2. Feb., 12 Eureka, No. 4; Capital, No. 11. KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. Feb. 9 Fe Molay, No. 4, R. C. Feb. 10 Washington, No. 1.

EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS 9-Bethlehem, No. 7; Friendship, 174 Fidelity, No. 19. 19-Naomi, No. 3; Brookland, No. cb. 11-William F. Hunt, No. 16. cb. 12-Takoma, No. 12; Cathedral, No. 14; St. John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather oyster roast of the season at Eagles vations; Wilbur E. Fookes, badges souvenirs; A. F. Mayer, publicity; sel F. Shreve, music, and Theodore which the annual election took place, resulting as follows:

harles T. Lindsey, who conferred lighting order of red cross upon the class of candidates, Eminent W. B. Davis, commander of Old the class of commander of Old the commandery, No. 11, of Alexia, Va., accompanied by his staff a delegation of forty sir knights, present to serve as his personal tand assist in the rendition of the nonles over which he was to premonles over the was to premonles over which he was to premonles over the was ir Fred S. Cawson; excellent Rev. Sir Paul R. Hickok; nance, E. Sir Gratz E. Dunmaster of dispatches, E Sir A. finston; warder, E. Sir John A.

order, Rev. Paul R. Hickok, prelate of the Grand Command-

Past Commander John J. Harrower has been confined to his bed for the past month, but is much improved now and hopes to be out soon.

Past Commander Frank E. Gibson and Sir Knight James S. McCarthy have been at home Ill with the grip.

late summer.

late summer.

late summer.

Worthy Matron Maud Fellheimer and her corps of officers exemplified the degrees of the order in Areme Chapter. Past Commander Frank E. Gibson and Sir Knight James S. McCarthy have been at home ill with the grip.

Columbia Chapter, No. 1: La Fayette Chapter. No. 5: Washington Naval Chapter, No. 5: Washington Naval Chapter, No. 5: Washington Naval Chapter, No. 6. and Brightwood Chapter, No. 9. have elected the following officers during the past week:

Columbia Chapter, No. 1—James A. West, high priest: George G. Seibold, king: William S. Macdonald, scribe: Charles Cyrus Coombs, secretary. Richard B. Nixon, treasurer; Frank H. Pierce, captain of host; Rufus W. Pearson, pincipal sojourner; George L. Sherman, royal arch captain; John E. Sorland, master third vail; Grant S. Sarnhart, master second vail; Edward Burkholder, master first vail: J. William Lucas, sentinel; Townley A. McKee. trustee one year; Richard B. Nixon, trustee three years: Castleman P. Boss, custodian; proxies to Grand Chapter, Frank H. Pierce, Rufus W. Pearson, George L. Sherman, Oscar A. Danzenbaker, organist; Charles F. Myers, Alex Mosher, J. Henry Kaiser, and J. Walter Humphrey, choir. The officers were installed by Grand High priests glewel was presented to the retiring high priests glewel was presented to the retiring high priest signed to the priest walter R. Pettus. A past high priests jewel was presented to the retiring high priest; Charles C. Galloway, by Past High Priest Emmett M. Carter.

La Fayette Chapter, No. 5—Jesse W. Thornton, high priest; William H. Parker Martine and the corps of the order in Areme Chapter and the corps of the evening were the musical numbers by the Esther Chapter and the single treating she heater of the degrees of the order in Areme Chapter, No. 10. Wednesday night to wiscal numbers by the Esther Chapter and the corps of the order in the degrees of the order in Areme Chapter, No. 10. Wednesday night to wiscal numbers by the Esther Chapter and the collowing of Areme Cha Smith, high priest: Philip F. Pollard, king; Ovilup H. George, scribe; Henry Yost, Jr., secretary; Lawrence B. McEntyre, treasurer, and proxies to Grand Chapter, Benjamin F. Vernon, for high priest; Philip P. Brown, for king, and Ailen Walker, for scribe.

Speaking almost impossible. Refreshments were served.

Naomi Chapter will celebrate its twentieth birthday February 10. Every chapter in the jurisdiction will be repriest; Philip P. Brown, for king, and Ailen Walker, for scribe.

Tuesday, Albert Pike Consistory, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, will confer the thirty-first degree, with Carter B. Keene, thirty-second degree, as venerable president, assisted by Arthur B. Hayes, thirty-second degree; Francis J. Woodman, thirty-third degree, honorary; Gordon Robinson, thirty-second degree; James H. McIntosh, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Ellwood P. Morey, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Charles G. F. Toepper, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Charles G. F. Toepper, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Charles G. F. Toepper, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Charles G. F. Toepper, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Charles G. F. Toepper, thirty-second degree, and John H. von Herrmann, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H.; Evangelist Chapter Rose Croix will also hold a meeting for the second degree, K. C. C. H. Evangelist Chapter Rose Croix will also hold a meeting for the transaction the evening of Friday, February 12, at 8 oclock, in the commandery asylum, New Masonic Temple. An entertainment has been provided, which will be toilowed with light refreshments and concluded with a dance.

At the stated

ary 4, the F. C. degree was presented, the new junior warden, Henry Page, heading the line. The F. C. degree will be presented again at the next stated communication. A resolution was adopted by the lodge Thursday, by which a member will be exempted from the payment of dues for the remainder of his life upon payment of $75. This course was adopted ness the F. C. degree will be conferred, Junior Warden Marx E. Kahn presidlowing teams: The 11th Lebanon, at National Riflest alleys, 918 G street; the 15th, King David, at National Rifles alleys, and the 23d, Stansbury, at the Diagnord ellers.

The Grotto.

Sotwithstanding the inclement weather onday evening, Kalipolis Grotto Band Legral evening, Kalipolis Grotto Band Legral evening at its section of the control of the control lution adopted a year ago, the following committee has been chosen to represent Osiris Lodge, No. 26, in addition to its regular officers, twelve in number, at all its Masonic funerals during 1915: Joseph Herzog (volunteer), C. Cohen, E. I. Creamer, W. B. Creecy, D. M. Cridler, G. A. Davidson, W. H. De Shields, J. B. Dexter, J. Elsemann, S. Fischer, C. F. Flory, W. D. Foos, F. G. Fowler, A. J. Frederick, C. S. Frye and S. F. Gillespie.

ly from relieving applicants for char-ity, other than their own members, but board was held in the New Masonic Temple Monday, January 25. Reports were read from all committees, after which the annual election took place,

Electa Chapter, No. 2, O. E. S., met invitation to each sir knight with a large attendance of members

Worthy Matron Maud Fellheimer and

La Fayette Chapter, No. 5—Jesse W. Thornton, high priest: William H. Parsons, king: Frank Sprigg Perry, scribe: William A. Craig, secretary: Albert F. Fox, treasurer, and proxies to Grand Chapter, James S. McCarthy, for high priest: William S. Quinter, for king, and Charles R. Bartlett, for scribe. Washington Naval Chapter, No. 6—Harry M. Reynolds, high priest: Charles E. Baker, king: William T. Hebbard, scribe: John J. King, secretary: Peter C. Garden, treasurer, and proxies to Grand Chapter, William J. Johnson, for high priest: Frank B. Guest, for king, and Otto B. Roepke, for scribe. Brightwood Chapter, No. 9—Walter F. Smith, high priest: Philip F. Pollard, king: Ovilup H. George, scribe: Henry Vert.

Mizpah Chapter.

Mizpah Chapter, No. 8, O. E. S., cele brated "ground hog" night with an entertainment which was attended by a large number of members and friends. Some of the features consisted of "ground hog" games, for which Mrs. Lintler and Mr. Rosemond received first prizes, the "consolations" going to Mrs. Holiday and "consolations" going to Mrs. Holiday and Mr. Waddy.

Two "German chefs" entered the chap-ter room becaring a roasted pig on their way to the banquet hall, where the pig served as a chief attraction of a splendid Supper.

The chapter expects to entertain Potomac Lodge, No. 5, and George C. Whiting Lodge, No. 22, blue lodge night, February 16. A cordial invitation is extended to sister lodges.

The drill corps of Columbia Commandery extends a cordial invitation to each sir knight and ladies to be present as guests of the drill corps, on the evening of Friday, February 12, at Soclock, in the commandery asylum New Masonic Temple.

ing, a jewel was presented to Junior were entertained Monday evening at the Past Master Albert A. Glaze. At the stated communication of Naval Lodge, No. 4, Thursday evening, February 4, the F. C. degree was presented, the new junior warden, Henry Page, heading the line. The F. C. degree will be presented again at the next stated communication. A receiption was adopted by payment of $75. This course was adopted for the purpose of materially reducing the outstanding debt on Naval Lodge building.

Washington Centennial Lodge is to have a Maryland night, February 17, to entertain Birmingham Lodge and also her neighbor, Mount Hermon Lodge, No. 179, of Hyattsville.

After the pressing matters of business of the conferred.

to which all were invited.

The auxiliary home board of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home met recently in New Masonic Temple, with a large attendance. Reports from committees showed good work done for the home. The annual election took place: Mrs. Emilie R. Botsch, president (re-elected); Mrs. Cornelia Campbell, first vice president; Mrs. Rebecca Meiners, second vice president; Mrs. Flora A. Campbell, secretary; Mrs. Minerva Crawford, donation secretary. Mrs. Botsch spoke of the theater benefit to be given by the auxiliary board, proceeds of which will go to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

Monday-Union, No. 11, degree. Beacon, No. 15; Covenant, No. 13, and Langdon, No. 26, business.
Tuesday-Washington, No. 6; Golden Rule, No. 21, and Amily, No. 27, degree.
Wednesday-Eastern, No. 7; Harmony, No. 9, and Federal City, No. 20, degree.
Thursday-Columbia, No. 10, and Salem, No. 22, degree. Excelsior, No. 17, business.

ENCAMPMENTS. Tuesday-Fred D. Stuart, No. 7, degree, Wednesday-Columbian, No. 1, business. Monday—Esther, No. 5, degree and social. Friday—Dorcas, No. 4, and Martha Wash ington, No. 3, degree.

Saturday—Canton Washington, No. 1, so-cial.

in addition to home members. This odge will meet only twice a month now, hence there will be no session

It is reported that there will be about sixteen applicants from Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 29, several from Coship Lodge, No 12, and Langdon Lodge

During the past week. Grand Patricular letter to the members of the several added energy in the matter of increasin that branch of the order. Patriarchs are requested to bear in mind the ing held in the several encampments. The next will be to Fred D. Stuart En campment, No. 7, March 9.

Eastern Lodge, No. 7, the initiatory degree was conferred on one of its candidates for membership. Visitors from Forrestville, Md., Lodge and from row will confer the third degree on two candidates. Union Lodge expects to have degree work every Monday night during the term and invites the attendance of members from other lodges.

At the regular meeting of Friendship Temple, No. 9, Pythian Sisters, Wednesday evening the members on the sick list were reported to be improving. Next Wednesday evening, February 10, will be given over to the side of Union Lodge, No. 11, conferred the two candidates. Union Lodge expects to have degree work every Monday night during the term and invites the attendance of members from other lodges.

The Ladies' Odd Fellows' Home Circle held a well attended session Wednesday evening in the blue room of Odd Fellows' Hall. Reports from the several committees were very encouraging, showing that slowly but surely the circle is adding to its fund toward the establishment in this jurisdiction of an Odd Fellows' home. The ladies should receive the encouragement of all of the members in the District in their projects for raising the amount they have determined shall come from the circle for that purpose.

Temple, No. 9, Pythian Sisters, Wednesday evening, the members on the sick list were reported to be improving. Next Wednesday evening, February 10, will be given over to the Past Chief's Association to hold a box party.

At the conclusion of the meeting the Most Excellent Chief Ada Freeman requested all the members and visitors from Rathbone Temple to remain and participate in a peanut hunt. Carrie Davis, having found the highest number of peanuts, was awarded the first prize and Nettie Crowther the second prize.

Pythian Sisters, Wednesday evening, the members on the sick list were reported to be improving. Next Wednesday evening, February 10, will be given over to the Past Chief's Association to hold a box party.

At the conclusion of the meeting and visitors from Rathbone Temple to remain and participate in a peanut hunt. Carrie Davis, having found the highest number of peanuts, was awarded the first prize and Nettie Crowther the second prize.

Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Pythian Sisters, initiated an aumber of candidates at the meeting Friday night. Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, conferred Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, conferred the Rebekah degree on a part of a pending class of candidates Monday evening. Several visitors were present and interesting remarks were made by Past Noble Grand Henrietta Werner, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, and a former degree director of Ruth Lodge. It was announced that Mr. and Mrs. Jensen of this lodge are about to leave for Norfolk, Va., on a visit that will extend into the month of April. Arrangements are being made for a reception and entertainment by the degree social class, and a large attendance is urged at the next session of the lodge.

Naomi Chapter, No. 3, O. E. S., was entertained at the close of its recent business meeting by Robert Morris, past grand patron of Kentucky, who is the son of the founder of the Order of the Eastern Star. Remarks by L. Cabell Williamson were followed by a recess during which an auction sale.

The grand secretary has already started the card index system adopted by the Grand Lodge at its last session and desires the secretaries to help him in securing the data referring to each member of the lodge, that will make the index a success and fill a need long felt in this jurisdiction. Cards for filling in the desired data can be procured from the grand secretary or W. E. Clapp, at Odd Fellows' Hall Secretary S. E. Boyce of Eastern Lodge, No. 7, is the first to file a complete card index of his lodge membership.

Past Grand J. William Brewer is reported as quite ill at his home, 1432 Union street southwest, and will appreciate a visit from any of his Odd Fellow friends who will call on him It was reported last evening that he was somewhat improved.

Members of Canton Washington, No. 1, P. M., are asked to bear in mind the plans for holding drills at specified times in the future, as it is evident that the canton during the present year will have several events on its hands that will require a good showing in drill matters.

to attend the meeting tomorrow night o. Union Lodge, No. 11. The third degree will be conferred in more elaborate form than is usual.

Daughters of Liberty.

Hope Council, No. 1, Daughters of Liberty, met Friday at its hall, 304 R celebrate Washington's birthday with a typical party at the council's meet-ing February 23, and to hold a rum-mage sale later on. Notes were read in reference to the immigration bill, and regrets were expressed for the illness regrets were expressed for the illness of Mrs. Ida Miller, an old and honored member, whose condition has been made critical because of the sheek of her mother's sudden death.

Feb. 8—Decatur, No. 9, business.
Calanthe, No. 11, rank of knight.
Equal, No. 17, business.
Feb. 9—Webster, No. 7, business.
Excelsior, No. 14, rank of esquire.
Capital, No. 24, business.
Myrtle, No. 25, business.
Feb. 10—Mount Vernon, No. 5, business.
Hermione, No. 12, business.
Hermione, No. 12, business.
Feb. 11—Harmony, No. 21, business.
Feb. 12—Syracusians, No. 10, business.
Ratibone-Superior, No. 29, business.
Ratibone-Superior, No. 29, business.

Feb. 10—Friendship Temple, No. 9, business.
Feb. 12—Rathbone Temple, No. 8, business. Feb. 10—Washington Company, No. 1, business.
DRAMATIC ORDER KNIGHTS OF KHO-Feb. 8—Ascalon Temple, No. 1, business, GENERAL RELIEF BUREAU. Feb. 13—Monthly meeting, election of of-ficers.

several years past has met in Northeast Temple, has moved to the New Masoni Temple, 8th street northeast, where it clement weather, a large number of Large delegations were present from Equal Lodge, No. 17; Rathbone-Superior Lodge, No. 29, and Century Lodge, No. 30. Addresses were delivered by Past Chancellor C. E. McAllister of Decatur Chancellor C. E. McAllister of Decatur Lodge, No. 9; Past Grand Chancellor Mark Stearman of Century, No. 30; Past Grand Chancellor G. Frank Day of Century, No. 30; Chancellor Commander W. E. Dentinger, and Vice Chancellor Joseph Stein of Century, No. 30, and also Dr. Stone of the same lodge.

Past Grand Prelate C. W. Henderson, a member of Harmony Lodge, No. 21, also made an address. W. Barnes would deliver his lecture on "The Holy Land." Chancellor Commander T. O. Pullizzi of Rathbone-Superior Lodge, No. 29, entertained the lodge with a number of recitations.

Excelsior Lodge, No. 14, will confer the rank of esquire at its convention Tuesday evening.

Syracusians' Lodge, No. 10, the lodge showing the greatest gain in membership in this domain during the past year, was instituted February 3, 1868, and last Friday evening celebrated in an informal manner its forty-seventh ander Knights of Khorassan, will hold its regular business meeting tomorrow evening and complete plans outlined for the ceremonial of the temple, to be hold the 16th instant.

Century Lodge, No. 30, will calebrate its fifteenth anniversary of institution Monday night, March 29, with appropriate exercises. The entertainment will be open to the families and friends of the members of the lodge.

The personnel of committee which is to arrange for the anniversary follows: Past Grand Chancellor Mark Stearman, chairman; M. T. Pimes, W. A. H. Turner, Edward F. Seidan and Herman C.

Chancellor Commander Willett E. Dentinger has inaugurated a fifteenth anniversary class to be held May 3, and has offered a solid gold Pythian watch fob to the member bringing in the most applications between February 1 and April 30.

The Damon Dramatic Club will mee Thursday night in the armory of Pythia Temple for the first rehearsal of the entertalmment to take place April 13.

Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Pythian Sisters, initiated a number of candidates at the meeting Friday night. The work of the degree team and a drill by the staff received the commendation of the large number of members in attendance. The most excellent chief, Mrs. Olivia Atherton, has introduced a number of innovations in the temple which are meeting with the approval of the membership, it is stated. Friday night of the current week Rathbone Temple will entertain its members and friends with a social and euchre.

The Past Chiefs' Association, Pythian Sisters, of the District will give a box party Wednesday night at the Pythian Temple. The president, Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, has invited all members and friends of the organization to attend

Plans for entering a team in the howling league of the organization were discussed at a meeting of Edward J. Ross Council, No. 26, Wednesday night. Edward J. Ross is to have for membership were received and the date at the meeting. Secretary W. E. Saunders, who recently met with an accident, was unable to attend the meeting. It was the first time he has been absent from a meeting since he became a member of the order.

At a meeting of Thomas Jefferson Council, No. 12, Tuesday night, at Northeast Temple, Councilor Curtis presided. Two candidates were elected and the two elected at the last meeting were introduced and the degree conferred on them in full form by the degree team. Two members who had degree team. Two members who had moved from the jurisdiction asked for withdrawal cards with the intention of joining a council just organized near their home. J. M. Thompson and J. Emmner, who have been sick for several weeks, were reported as improving. S. C. Conductor and Mr. Barksdale addressed the meeting.

Liberty Bell Council, No. 55, held a meeting Thursday evening at the Northeast Temple, at which Recording Secretary Ernest R. Boyer was reported sick. Julias L. Gothleib, councilor of Constellation Council, No. 30, delivered an interesting address, and invited this council to be present next Thursday evening at their meeting to initiate several candidates for them. The council accepted the invitation. The council is considering the proposition of changing its meeting from Thursday to Tuesday. Addresses were also made by Messrs. Hellmuth, Brown and Dawkins.

The meetings are to be held at the wigwam of Osage Tribe, No. 6, 5th and G streets northwest. Fifty delegates and the great chiefs of the Great Council and all past sachems constitute the body.

Great Sachem Council have been finished.

State Vice Councilor Reagon presided at the plano, and the mysteries of the order were exemplified by the degree team of Old Glory Council on a class of sixteen.

Progressive Council will be at home at its hall, 314 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, every Thursday evening beautiful to the plano, and the mysteries of the order were exemplified by the degree team of Old Glory Council or a class of sixteen.

Sagamore Bunch, Great Junior Sagamore Hummer, Great Prophet Whitman and Great Keeper of Wampum Limbach are to make reports.

night at Pythian Temple. Past Sachem Doherty hopes soon to bring five Reports that several of the sick members are improving were made at a recent meeting of Menneola Tribe at Masonic Hall, Anacostia, D. C. Among those who spoke were Past Great Sachems White, Baxter and Tibbett and Past Sachem Caton.

| Comparison of Menneola Tribe at E. R. Campbell, G. S. Hill, Arthur B. Barringer and R. L. Oatley of William Barringer and R. L. Oatley of W

Degree of Pocahontas.

Eight new members were initiated into Idaho Council when it met at Northeast Temple recently. Following the meeting a supper was served. Among the visitors present were Misses E. Willner, H. Sanderson and M. R. Kubatz and Mr. and Mrs. Rader and Great Sachems W. T. Marvin and Garner.

Juanita Council met Tuesday eve ing at its hall at 5th and G streets.

town camp and the Woodmen band and M streets northwest, February 19. 1 days.

freshments were served.

A ladies' circle, auxiliary to Mount Vernon Camp, will be instituted Tuesday in its hall by State Manager McConnell. Dr. J. Albert Potter has been elected examining physician for the circle. Meetings will be held the second

DAUGHTERS & AMERICA

Thursday to Tuesday. Addresses were also made by Messrs. Hellmuth, Brown and Dawkins.

Progressive Council, No. 9, Daughand Dawkins.

Star Spangled Banner Council, No. 8, at a meeting Thursday evening, obligated one candidate and received one for membership. John Robey, who has been sick with pneumonia, is reported to be improved. The council is preparing for its visitation, which will be held Thursday

Arrangements are being made for the annual donation party and ball to be given by the Knights of Columbus at Convention Hall, Easter Monday night, for the benefit of St. Ann's Infant and Mational Council held a special meeting Tuesday afternoon to confer the degree on two candidates who could not attend evening sessions.

Baughters of Mizpah Council, No. Mational Council held a special meeting of the general committee, under the chairmanship of Capt. C. E. Edwards, with pneumonia, is reported to be improved. The council is preparing for its visitation, which will be held Thursday

Limbach are to make reports.

Great Chief of Records Altmann reports that at the close of the year the combined funds of the various tribes and councils amounted to $17,078.01; expenditures, $7,269.61, leaving a balance of $9,808.40. The orphan fund, to which additions are made each year, is reported in excellent condition.

The reports show a net increase of one hundred in membership. The chairmen of the various committees have their reports ready for the opening night.

The great incohonee, F. O. Downes of Boston, Mass., is to be present, representing the Great Council of the United States.

White Forle Teits we want the ports of the various tributes and council of the United States. Maryland B. Cushing Camp, No. 30, Maryland Division, met Thursday evening in Grand Army Hall, 1912 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Commander Omar J. Veley, presiding. Previous to the meeting there was an informal smoker.

candidates into the tribe. Talks were made by Great Senior Sagamore John I. Bunch and Past Sachem T. E. Anderson.

At a meeting of Logan Tribe at its hall, Wisconsin avenue and N street northwest, Mr. Gummel extended an invitation to the Glee Club to go to accepted the invitation. Brief talks.

hall, Wisconsin avenue northwest, Mr. Gummel extended an invitation to the Glee Club to go to Fort Myer Tuesday evening. The club accepted the invitation. Brief talks were made by Past Great Sachem Charles Fuller and Past Sachems Fred Sheppard, Souders and Ed Levis. The bowling team of the tribe has issued a challenge to the team of the Mineola Tribe.

Past Great Sachem J. B. Altman and Past Sachems Wine, Ellison, Dolman, Marvin and Scott were speakers at a meeting of Seneca Tribe at 31t Pennsylvania avenue southeast recently. The success of the ball recently given by the tribe was one of the matters discussed with interest.

Reports that several of the sick memReports that several of the sick memImproving were made at a several of the sound at the Republic held.

In the sounces of

William B. Cushing Camp Auxiliary, or the United States.

Members of Sieux Tribe decided at a meeting Thursday evening to give an excursion to Marshall Hall July 15. Joe Frazzana was adopted by the tribe and is to be given the warrior's degree next Thursday evening. J. T. Jones was reported as being still cone fined to his home, 631 M street southwest, on account of illness. The members were invited to be present at the meeting of Osage Tribe, 5th and G streets, tomorrow evening to meet the Great Incohonee.

Description and two large was presented to kets of fruit and flowers to Miss Genticu and Miss Barlow by the auxiliary. Those of the sons who spoke were Maj. E. R. Campbell, Past Division Commander E. R. Robb, Past Camp Commander Roscoe L. Oatley, J. Clinton Hiatt and G. S. Hill, judge advocate of the Cushing Auxiliary.

A reception to the visiting division officers was given later in the week by a the auxiliary at the home of Mrs. M. D. Gates, 416 12th street northeast.

Last Sunday afternoon a reception to the division officers was a street of the Cushing Auxiliary.

A reception to the visiting division officers was given later in the week by a street, stomorrow evening to meet the division officers was given later in the week by a street, stomorrow evening to meet the division officers was given later in the week by a street south and the street was a street to the division officers was given later in the week by a street south and the street was a street to the division officers was given later in the week by a street south and the street was a street to the division officers was given later in the week by a street south and the street was a street to the division officers was given later in the week by a street was a street to the division officers was given later in the week by a street was a street was a street to the division of street to the stree Last Sunday afternoon a reception to the division officers was given at the home of Mrs. Herbert W. Rutledge in Takoma Park.

KNIGHTS

have organized a dramatic club with purpose "to provide pleasant and intellectual recreation for its members tions by providing entertainment." Francis J. P. Cleary; vice president, Maurice Fitzgerald; treasuren E. L. Tucker; secretary, D. J. Sullivan; stage directors, Henry F. Dolan and John Luitich; master of properties, Joseph B. Fitzpatrick; business manager, William P. Normoyle.

The club is now rehearsing two omedies, "My Lord in Livery" days.

The following members have been appointed district deputies for the ensuing year: Alpha, No. 1, H. R. Smith; Old Glory, No. 3, J. A. Gramer, J. M. Heinbuch and H. W. Tippett; Oak, No. 4, B. F. Williams, W. C. Stott and Ruby. Downs; Mount Vernon, No. 5, R. J. Brown and W. H. McKinney; Cypress, No. 7, A. P. Hart; Elm, No. 8, H. E. Sangston and H. O'Neili; Potomac, No. 9, J. W. Middleton and J. C. Houston; Georgetown, No. 10, W. P. Martsch and R. T. Huntington; Cedar, No. 11, S. E. Homar.

At the last meeting of Mount Vernon Camp, No. 5, A. H. Burdine, consult commander, in the chair, two new members were obligated and three applications presented for action. J. H. Van Allein was elected delegate and William M. McDonald alternate to the head camp convention to be held at for "Fraternalism" was given by W. Schoneberger; W. P. Martsch spoke of The Strength of the Order," and Lieut. Col. Wilsher on "The Duties and Engagements," which are to be produced for the benefit of the Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, February 10, in Carroll T. Fitzgerald has the role of Lord T. Hall. In "My Lord in Livery," Joseph T. Tirigrente. He gained stage experience on the professional stage. The part of Hopkins is essayed by John C. Merkling, who was with the Georgetown Minstrel Club a few seasons ago. Robert, the smallest of pages, is being played by John Costello.

The female members of the Cast are Miss Marjorie Corcoran, well known as a member of the St. Patrick's Sybil. Laura will be vitalized by Miss Grant W. Va., March 16. A talk on "Fraternalism" was given by W. Schoneberger; W. P. Martsch spoke of The Strength of the Order," and Lieut. Col. Wilsher on "The Duties and Engagements," which are to be paul Society, February 10, in Carroll T. Fitzgerald has the role of Lord The Titygerald has the role of Lord The Titygerald has the role of Lord The Titygerald has the role of Lord The Stream Allen Particular The Stream Allen Particular The Stream Allen St. Dominic's association. The character of "Spig-role "Naval Engagements," which are to be "Naval Engagements," which are to be produced for the benefit of the Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, February 10, in Carroll Hall. In "My Lord in Livery," Joseph T. Fitzgerald has the role of Lord Thirlemere. He gained stage experience with a dramatic club of St. John's College and the St. Dominic's association. The character of "Spiggot has been assigned Henry F. Dolan, who had several years' experience on Inis E. Connell. The comedy character parts in this play are Dennis and Short, with Joseph L. Degman in the former and M. J. Driscell in the latter. The character of Mrs. Pontifex, which admits of many opportunities for depicting refined comedy, has been assigned to Mrs. Sarah Deeds. The ingenue part of Mary will be enacted by Miss Edna Hillyard.

Three of the players appeared with the Carroll Institute Dramatic Club's last production of "Alabama," namely. Messrs. Dolan, Cleary and Connell.

Arrangements are being made for the annual donation party and ball to be given by the Knights of Columbus at Convention Hall. Easter Monday night; spect.

evening, February 11. The members of this council are trying to get candidates for the class initiation, which is to be held tomorrow of the class initiation, which is to be beld tomorrow.

Mary White; A. V. C., Wesley White; chairman; E. L. Tucker, W. H. Callahan, C. W. Darr and Mrs. J. R. Gallo-ban, C. W. H. Callahan, C. W. H. Callahan, C. W. Darr and Mrs. J. R. Gallo-ban, C. W. H. Callahan, C.

SONSETERANS

Lincoln Camp, No. 2, Maryland Division, met Monday night in the Perpetual building. 1101 E street northwest, Commander Charles M. Overacker, presiding. Routine business was transacted and a social time enjoyed.

Keene Council will meet Tuesday evening.

Carroll Council met Tuesday evening.

Keene Council will meet Thursday night Representative Reilly of Wisconsin de-livered an address at the Fourth Degree meeting Monday night. Potomac Council will meet tomorrow

Washington Council will meet Tuesday night. At the meeting Tuesday, February 23, there will be resumed the "Past Grand Knights Meeting," with Dr. A. D. Wilkinson, the fifth grand knight, in Forty-two couples in eight buser visited the Columbus Country Club Mon-

The Intercouncil Dancing Assembly, through Chairman Thomas J. Gaffney, has arranged for a dance tomorrow night at Rauscher's.

The drill team of the Fourth Degree, consisting of twenty-four men and three officers, commanded by Maj. C. Eugent Edwards, will go to Baltimore Thursday night to give an exhibition drill at the Knights of Columbus charity ball in the 5th Regiment Armory.

president; Charles T. Miller, vice president; Thomas P. Ryan, speaker; J. E. Borland, secretary; Elmer Johnson, treasurer; J. H. Jones, chaplain; W. J. Barrows, usher; J. C. McConnell, sergeant-at-arms, and William O'Brien, doorkeeper.

Medical Director Tracy H. Clark, Actuary Wendell P. Coler and General Counsel George P. Kirby were present at the general deputies' meeting Wednesday evening. Mr. Coler explained the seven new methods that the National Union has adopted. The medical director and general counsel spoke on the good of the order.

sentinel, C. W. C. Nellson; trustees, S. Goldsmith, T. W. Burke and J. Brock; representative to the supreme convention, which is to be held at Richmond, Va., June 10, Samuel Siegel; alternate, L. J. Silverman. These officers were installed by C. C. Beveridge, district deputy supreme archon, assisted by W. A. Knotts of Columbia Conclave acting as supreme prelate and Past A. Knotts of Columbia Conclave acting as supreme prelate, and Past Archon Louis Cohen as supreme inspector.

Mr. Beveridge complimented the con-Mr. Beveridge complimented the conclave upon its growth and presented to the retiring archon, J. C. Schlesinger, a Heptasoph pin, made of gold and beautifully engraved. The latter responded appropriately. The hall was decorated with plants and flowers and after the ceremonies of the evening a caterer served a repast. An orchestra of ten pieces alternated with speeches made by Messrs. Beveridge, Holland, Siegel, Adler, Guggenheim, Knotts, Schlesinger, Pimes, Fellheimer and others. The seventy-five members present expressed interest in the coming convention to be held at Richmond and concerning the increase of membership.

Columbia Conclave, No. 11, I. O. H. Columbia Conclave, No. 11, I. O. H., held a meeting Tuesday evening in its lodgerooms, in the building of the Perpetual Building Association. About fifty members were present and among them were many of the older ones, who in loyalty to "Old Columbia" turned out to greet the new officers. It was the occasion of the annual installation. District Deputy Supreme Archon George A. Miller of Baltimore, with his degree team, officiated, and George J. Hassett, a member of the Archon George A. Miller of Baltimore, with his degree team, officiated, and after administering oaths to the officers-elect and addressing them about the duties they had solemnly promised to perform he invested them with the insignia of their respective offices. The newly installed officers for 1915 are: Past archon, Clayton E. Ickes; archon, John I. Bunch; provost, S. H. Ford; prelate, W. Irving Connelly; secretary, Leland T. Atherton; financier, W. A. Knotts; inspector, N. A. Lucas; warder, P. J. O'Dea; sentinel, J. G. Schmidt, and trustees, D. J. McNamara, J. P. Greely and William Pirie. Following the ceremonies the members adjourned to a nearby "oasis," where refreshments were served.

Howard Perry Conclave, No. 836, I. O. H., will hold its annual installation ceremonies at Eagles' Hall, 601 E street northwest, tomorrow evening. District Deputy Supreme Archon Albert Neuhahn of Baltimore will be in charge. Out-of-town speakers who are expected alto to take part in the ceremonies are Supreme Organizer Sheffield of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Dr. E. P. Muse and John C. Tolson. A banquet will be given at a cafe following the exercises.

and W. W. Chase, both of whom have been confined to the house, quite ill, are out again and manifesting their usual interest in Arcanum affairs.

A specially selected degree team is being formed by Grand Regent Mercer to exemplify the mysteries at the class night March 5. All the subordinate council officers are to be asked to be present to see how well the work can be done. The supreme regent of the order will welcome the new class.

Calendar—Monday, February 8, National Tent, No. 1, Old Masonic Temple; Anacostia Tent, No. 7, Masonic

No. 4, Masonic Hall, 8th and F streets northeast; Brigatwood Tent, No. 5, Maccabee Hall, Brightwood, D. C. .Thursday night, 11th, District Tent No. 8, hall 41/2 and G streets southwest.

representative to the Supreme Tent has been called by the supreme board of trustees, through Thomas L. Smith, state commander, for April 9. Mount Vernon, Brightwood, Anacostia and District tents have elected their delegate and the remaining tents will choose theirs the coming week.

is to formulate plans for a campaign for new members. The election of

D. Edward Clark, commander of Metropolitan Tent, No. 12, is on a trip to the Bermudas, to recuperate from a recent illness. Georgetown Tent, No. 6, held a meeting Thursday night. Degree work was given and plans discussed for building up the tent. The commander and tent deputy, M. W. Michael, is doing considerable work for that tent.

District Tent, No. 8, Thursday night held a meeting and initiated one can-didate. Several visitors from Mount Vernon Tent and the state commander attended and made brief addresses. Re-freshments were served.

Anacostia Tent, No. 7, has several applicants who are to be initiated this month. This tent is working for the District banner. The state commander has planned lieutenant commander; Clara A. Bieber, past commander; Emma Kaufman, chaplain; Stella M. Towner, record-keeper; Hannah Baines, finance auditor; Georgia A. Williams, mistressat-arms; Agnes Cruickshanks, ser-picket: Ethel Van Ness, official prompt-er; Hattie Taylor, captain of the guards; color bearers, Ethel Loveless and Rosie McFall. Several handsome ## presents were exchanged.

evening with a large attendance. The report of the committee for visiting sick and afflicted members showed that all were being taken care of.

W. I. Evans, chairman of the Elks quested and obtained permission for a committee. The ladies' committee is Owing to the great amount of business transacted, nomination for officers for the ensuing year was postponed until the meeting Wednesday. E. T. Simpson, chairman of the com-

George J. Hassett, a member of the order, who is lighthouse keeper at Alpena, Mich., and who spends the winters at Washington, left for his post Saturday.

The sympathy of the lodge was ex-tended to Samuel, Herman and Jake Richards and family on the death of their father, Morris Richards. dance committee, reported that the next monthly dance would be held February 15.

Rechabites.

Henderson Tent, I. O. R., held a mock trial recently at its hall, which was arranged as a court, with J. C. Eller as the judge. The prosecuting attorneys were C. L. Trewitt and J. B. Hart; a torneys for defendant, Clifford Johnson and C. Taylor; marshal, William Fletcher. The jury consisted of J. C. Moore, John McMahon, John Cooksey, Newman, H. Huff, L. Trevitt, W. Craw-

Eagle Tent, No. 2, L O. R., at its last neeting installed the following officers Eagle Tent, No. 2, I. O. R., at its last meeting installed the following officers for the ensuing term: Shepherd, Charles Boyd; past chief ruler, Charles Williams; chief ruler, A. B. White; deputy ruler, J. W. Tull; recording secretary, J. R. Mahoney; financial secretary, E. R. Mahoney; treasurer, P. J. Cooksey; Levite, H. C. Thompson; guardians, W. Ashford and C. Herford.

Daughters of America. Mizpah Council, No. 3, met Friday

evening at Odd Fellows' Hall, George-town. George A. Veitch was appointed captain of the drill team, and plans were adopted for an entertainment to raise funds for uniforms for the team. Harry S. Stowe of Fidelity Council, No.